Filing of Candidates' Financial Interests Disclosure Statements for the position of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs; Late Filers; Delinquent Filers

The deadline established by state statute (HRS §84-17(b)), Hawaii Revised Statutes, for candidates for the position of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs to file a "Candidates' Financial Interests Disclosure" statement with the Hawaii State Ethics Commission was Tuesday, October 17, 2006. A total of 22 candidates for the position of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs filed, by the statutory deadline date, a Candidates' Financial Interests Disclosure statement.

The disclosure statement calls for information concerning the candidate's sources of income received for services rendered, business interests, debts, real property interests, officership or director positions in businesses, clients represented before state agencies, and creditor interests in insolvent businesses. The disclosure statements are public records, available for public inspection and duplication.

The public is invited to review copies of the Candidates' Financial Interests Disclosure statements, filed for the position of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, at the Hawaii State Ethics Commission's office, 1001 Bishop Street, American Savings Bank Tower, Suite 970, on work days between 7:45 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Copies are also available at 5¢ per page.

The Hawaii State Ethics Commission did not receive, at the time of this news release, a Candidate's Financial Interests Disclosure statement from the following candidate for the position of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs:

DENNIS "BUMPY" KANAHELE

Section 84-17(j), Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires the Hawaii State Ethics Commission to release to the public a list of the names of candidates who failed to file a Candidates' Financial Interests Disclosure statement by the statutory deadline. Section 84-17(j), Hawaii Revised Statutes, also requires the Commission to assess a $25 late filing penalty fee against those candidates.
